PASSIONIST FAMILY GROUP

You are invited - Passionist Family Group Formation 2026

Passionist Family Groups have been gathering and growing for over 30 years in Dunedin. We extend a very warm invitation to attend a time of fellowship, faith education and reflection around two topics:

Nurturing and Nourishment

“No one can face life in isolation... We need a community that supports and helps us.” (Pope Francis – Fratelli Tutti)

These presentations will each be followed by shared discussion.

They cover what Passionist Family Groups are about, and how we can (re)connect with the life and love of the early Church by ‘being for others’ and building a place of welcome and belonging in our local parish communities. It’ll be engaging and fun – come and join us.

Presenter: Paul Traynor, National Coordinator of Passionist Family Group Aotearoa

Date: 14 June Time: 12.30 to 4.00pm Venue: Mercy Room, 42 MacAndrew Road, Dunedin.
